The 1998 Milestone

Governor Dummer Academy
Byfield, MA 01922

Dedication

"You only
make a once
in a lifetime
buddy, once
in a lifetime."
~ Stimey

When you are old and grey and full of sleep,
 And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
 And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
 Your eyes had once, and their shadows deep;
 How many loved your moments of glad grace,
 And loved your beauty with love false or true,
 But one man loved the pilgrim Soul in you,
 And loved the sorrows of your changing face;
 And bending down beside the glowing bars,
 Murmur, a little sadly, how Love fled
 And paced upon the mountains overhead
 And hid his face amid a crowd of stars.

~ William Butler Yeats,
 "When You Are Old"

The rain falls incessantly from the dark sky above. The students, cloaked in heavy rain jackets, dash in and out of buildings to escape, as if they would melt from the showers. They take shelter in the warm comfort and spend little time away from it. The outside world is free from the normal chatter and the slightest sounds echo in the abyss of fog. The campus appears deserted. However, one man strolls down the sidewalk, seemingly untouched by the rain. With his umbrella as his only protection, he walks, savoring the rain's sweetness. This is his manner; he is calm and deliberate in all his actions, yet unafraid of his emotions. He teaches with a passion that reaches deep into his students' hearts and minds. Serving as a dorm parent since he was first appointed in 1985 has allowed him to build a special bond with the students in his care. He also coached lacrosse for several years, allowing for yet another connection to the community. He is the definition of a teacher. Often taking the time to discuss students' problems at length, he is unable to walk by an upset student without pausing to inquire about his or her welfare. His informal demeanor sets everyone around him at ease. He could easily take the position as "most extracurricular." On campus, his work with the Drama Program has set new standards for our productions. Moreover, he insures that our exposure to the theatre continues off-campus as well by performing miracles, allowing us the opportunity to view some of the world's most famous plays. This man's community involvement extends far beyond the confines of campus. The plays that he has directed in the surrounding communities and his work at the Fire House in Newburyport, with his wife, Bonnie Jean, are innumerable but always memorable. The next time you see him riding his bike, wearing his big white sunglasses, thank him.

For all that he is and all that he has done, the 1998 Milestone is dedicated to...

Mr. Paul H. Wann

Wozu "der Mensch" da ist, soll uns gar nicht kümmern: aber wozu Du da bist, das frage dich: und wenn Du es nicht erfahren kannst, nun so stecke Dir selber Ziele, hohe und edle Ziele und gehe an ihnen zu Grunde! Ich weiss keinen besseren Lebenszweck als am Grossen und Unmöglichen zu Grunde zu gehen . . .

The Editors and Staff of the 1998 Milestone
thank the parents who supported the yearbook
with their messages this year. Your help is much appreciated!

From poetry to reason, and from music to science, Philip,
your accomplishments in so short a time have been remarkable. Yet of all the gifts that grace your life, the one that matters most is the gift of a compassionate and humanistic sensibility which you never hesitate to share with others.

In Loving Memory...

The tide recedes but leaves behind
bright seashells on the sand,

The sun goes down, but gentle
warmth still lingers on the land,

The music stops, and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains...

For every joy that passes,
something beautiful remains.

*Mrs. Colgate's long struggle with cancer ended sadly, on November 28, 1997.
She will be greatly missed.*

...They will be missed.

Things have gotten kind of hazy;
My ears miss some familiar sounds.
I look at the blank space on the wall
Because the picture's been taken down.

Now, I'll try to tell it like it is,
And I'll try to leave out any needless words.
I'm singing with the hope that he'll be listening.
Am I alone or being heard?

Why don't you come on down and stay awhile?
Teach us one more time to smile.
Lead us through this melancholy dream.
Can you hear them? Can you hear me?
Can you see the tears of tragedy?
Or is this the last time to speak?

Do you think that you could help me in my confusion?
Would you listen and tell me how it's going to be?
My thoughts are fogged by mists of disbelieving;
Crowded streets feel desolate and empty.

Where's the light you held to help us see
The truth despite this world of lies and cons?
It's our turn now to teach your words of kindness.
Your ideals are left for us to carry on.

~ Jesse Soursourian, "To A Friend Departed"

*On July 3, 1997 Mr. Liske peacefully departed from our community.
He will be greatly missed.*

*Strangers once, we came to dwell together,
Sons of the Governor, tried and true.
Now we're bound by ties that can not sever,
All our whole life through.
Gather closer, hand to hand:
The time draws near when we must part:
Still the love of Byfield days will linger,
Ever in each heart....*

So now, we have come to the end of another year. For the class of 1998, this has been our last year together. Now, we must move on, never to be all together again. However, we will use what we have learned here at GDA as a foundation for the future. We have stories to tell, and memories to share that will echo forever as remnants of our past. As the years unfold before of us, we must hold on to all we experienced during these four years. We must discover the wonder of departure: as we grow older and look back into the recesses of our memory, we will remain eternally young with the people we loved and grew with. "We will stay forever this way. You're safe in my heart and my heart will go on and on" (Celine Dion).

Good Luck! We love you all, it's been a time.

~ Elle and Alicia

*... So pass the ancient milestone by,
And lift the Senior Song on high;
Around the ancient milestone file,
For we have yet a little while
To linger youth, and you, and I
In Byfield days. (1959)*
